Medicinal

Medicinal.
Only the other day the newspapers told the story of a plucky woman who saved her husband from drowning in the rough Atlantic coast. There are other dangers beside that of drowning from which a shrewd woman may be a little diplomatically save her husband. Men are proverbially reckless about their health. They do not think it worth while to pay any heed to a slight indisposition. Then when they are prone to neglect their trouble until it is too late. A wife will assume guardianship of her husband's health. She will always have at hand a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When her husband faces out of sorts she will see that he takes it. It makes the appetite keen, the digestion perfect, the liver active, the blood pure and the nerves steady. It builds firm flesh, strong muscles, and healthy nerve tissues. It cures dyspepsia, liver complaint, malaria, rheumatism and nervous prostration. It cures as percent of all cases of consumption. An honest dealer will always give you what you ask for.
Dr. R. C. Zanto, Louisville, Ky. "Two doctors called to cure me. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in connection with 'Pleasant Pellets,' and was cured. I can now do as good a day's work as any man."
Continuation often causes sickness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative and a mild cathartic. They never gripe. They are tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules in little vials. Druggists sell them and have nothing else just as good. They regulate the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

A CIRCUS ON THE SEA.

A dispatch from London says Barnum & Bailey's mammoth show is now in full possession of the gigantic Olympia building in Kensington, where it is to open on "Boxing Day." The place is in a state of indescribable confusion. Hundreds of working men are toiling day and night completing the preparations for the exhibition.

The noise of hammering and shouting, the roaring of wild animals and the general chaos make it the nearest imaginable approach to pandemonium. But after having crossed the ocean with this modern Noah's ark noises do not disturb one. The trip was interesting, and the voyage pleasant after the first three days out. During these days rough water prevailed and several white squalls occurred, in one of which the pilot at Sandy Hook was run down.

Lying to for an hour we proceeded on our way with the melancholy memory of the loss of two lives at the outset of the voyage. Big seas broke over the ship again and again during the following two days, sometime drenching the stout men crouching in the lee of the deck edges.

All on board took it good humoredly, however, and the seasick ones were grieved unmercifully. An artist and a correspondent got a ducking the second day away down in the hull beneath an open hatch while watching the feeding of the wild animals. The latter were uneasy and raised a merry rumpus, which sometimes drowned the roar of the sea.

In this pitching and rolling we lost the giraffe, Daisy. She was thrown forward with her head down and broke her neck in two places. She was thrown down on Sunday evening, but her keeper, supposing that she was resting safely, did not go to her assistance. Next morning, however, she was found still lying in the same position, dead. She was hauled up from the hold and skinned on top of the elephant cages forward. The remains were thrown into the sea and the skin will sent to the Museum of Natural History to be stuffed and mounted.

Daisy was purchased at the Cincinnati Zoo, and had been the only giraffe on the American continent for the last two years.

There was another notable loss. "Pilot," the veteran big white baggage horse, who had been with the show for eighteen years, died on the first day out. Two other baggage horses and two monkeys were also lost during the trip.

The Surprise of All.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Sons, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter, his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from a first dose, and half dozen dollars bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottle at E. L. Allen's Drug Store.

The three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lynn Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros., of that place and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures for croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by J. H. Janney, Druggist 701 King street.

After using a 10 cent trial size of Ely's Cream Balm you will be sure to buy the 50 cent size. Cream Balm has no equal in curing catarrh and cold in head. Ask your druggist for it or send 10 cents to us.
ELY BROTHERS,
55 Warren Street, New York City.

I suffered from Catarrh three years; it got so bad I could not work; I used all kinds of ointments and cold in head. Ask your druggist for it or send 10 cents to us.
ELY BROTHERS,
55 Warren Street, New York City.

It is easy to catch a cold and just as easy to get rid of it if you commence early to use O. E. Cough Cure. It cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, pneumonia and all throat and lung troubles. It is pleasant to take, safe to use and sure to cure. Charles G. Lennon.

For Over Fifty Years

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, cures colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.
Jan 17 1897

"Eagle," the beautiful black stallion that had delighted thousands of show-lookers by its couched couched dance with Rider O'Brien on its back, died of Bishop Light and was buried in British waters. "Eagle" was 36 years old, but in the ring he looked like a colt in his gay trappings, prancing to the sound of music.

Johnson, the sorrow-stricken relict of Chimpanzee Crowley, was the heroine of the voyage, and the observer of all observers. She was devotedly seafaring and acted in her distress like a human being, first fearing that she would die, and then fearing that she would not. Mackay, her guide and friend, braced her up with wine, stewed chicken and other dainties, and at last she got on her sea legs with the rest of us, and on the fourth day when there was smooth water, she became quite gay.

Indeed, she felt so well before the wind that she got into a great three-round scrap with the tigers living on the other side of the three-foot lantern lighted alley, and slumped her big china bowl at them, of course, after devouring its contents. The tigers kicked and growled too much in their confined quarters to suit her ladyship.

Philip, the big pet monkey, got loose one day and defied arrest for several hours, skipping in his delight as it was a game from the top of one cage to another. Dinner time, however, brought Philip back, penitent and hungry.

One of the big elephants was miserably seasick. He leaned against the side of his cage and wept great globules of tears all day, his long, nervous trunk lying around in the bay in any old way during this unhappy period.

There was a short scare one day over a fire which broke out in the oil room. The scare came in an hour or two after the fire had been extinguished with a pail of water. But all ships have little fires of this kind almost every trip and passengers scarcely know of them, so that is scarcely worth mentioning. The saloon passengers generally turn up promptly for the meals after a day or two.

The last few days was like a roller coaster down the hill. There were a few small but not a few stars were visible, but the side-show band merrily piped things up during the day. While the Arab acrobats built pyramids to keep their muscles limber and the trained dogs performed on deck, down in the saloon women and children played innocent games, while some body was sure to be wrestling with the piano at any hour of the day or night. Poker ruled in the smoking room and cabin 24 hours out of every 24.

Twelve days is a long voyage, but it was an enjoyable one for 50 people, who knew each other well and had a community of business and social interests. Upon arriving here there was a great scramble for places to live within convenient distance of Olympia—a search which has not yet been crowned with success in every case.

"The worst cold I ever had in my life was cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes "H. Norton, of Sutter Creek, Cal." "This cold left me with a cough and I was expectorating all the time. The Remedy cured me, and I want all of my friends when troubled with a cough or cold to use it, for it will do them good." Sold by J. H. Janney, Druggist, 701 King street.
